Please limit responses to the questions to 200 words per question.

1. What are the three most important issues facing Kansas and how would you prioritize them?

1. Continuing to work for the reduction of taxes, especially property taxes. This would be dealt with during the budget process.
2. Conservation of our water and keeping it pure from contamination so it will be there for generations to come. It is one of our most precious resources and we need it to sustain life along with the agriculture industry's survival. This will take serious discussion that does not tie the hands of our farmers doing their of feeding the world.
3. Economic development and workforce shortages must be addressed to keep rural Kansas viable going forwards to be able to maintain our current rural populations.

2. What is your position on expanding Medicaid and why? Would you support putting Medicaid Expansion on the ballot? I'm open to working with those who see the need for alternative healthcare funding and vouchers that would support our rural hospitals to maintain access to health care for all Kansans.

3. How can we be assured that if elected, you will work in the best interests of your constituents versus your personal interests? I will commit to transparency and communication with the 107th constituents while being accountable to their needs. The policies I vote for will reflect the needs and concerns of those I represent. I will serve with integrity to earn and maintain the trust of those I represent in my district.

4. What will you do about the Gun Violence crisis? I will vote to strengthen background checks, support gun safety programs, collaborate with law enforcement to identify those with gun related crimes and invest in mental health support.
